SAHARA 2018

Contest for cooking goulash– Competition propositions

25. 08. 2018 (saturday)

Timetable:

- 7.30 h - Competition teams will receive meat for goulash at SAHARA stall
- After you received meat the competition starts
- till 13.00 h- End of the cooking
- from 13.00 h - Beginning of tasting the goulashes and rating it by tasters
- 17.00 h - End of the competition
- till 19.00 h- Evaluation of competition

Information for You:

- Competition teams will be marked alphabetically and color-coded
- Competition teams will be preparing goulash only from meat supplied by organizer of event SAHARA. Another ingredients to goulash must teams provide themselves.
- Organizer of the competition will provide bread , serving bowls , spoons , napkins and ladles
- The competition team gets 5 kg of beef, from which 15 liters of goulash can be cooked, which is about 100 portions in 150 ml doses.
- After completing goulash (about 13.00 hrs), the members of the competition teams will serve the goulash to serving dishes inserted in the old canteen to the tasters
- Goulash will only be submitted to an assessor who submits a purchased ballot which includes a rating card. The model of the rating card is on page no. 3 of these propositions.
- After serving the goulash, it is necessary for the member of the competition team to indicate that the goulash has already been presented to the taster. The pattern is on page no. 4 of these propositions.
- The evaluator evaluates all competition goulas on scales 1 through 5. Whereby the best goulash gets rating 1 and the worst goulash 5. His rating preference is marked by a cross or circle on the rating card he points to the ballot box.
- The winning team in goulash cooking will be announced after counting the ballot papers received during the evening program.
- Each competition team is responsible throughout its entirety for its location (organization of the expenditure, order ...).
